

2013 COLLECTION

PART 2

"Bears With Personalities"

Dear Friends,

the new collection I have nicknamed our "dreams and wishes" collection as lots of the bears showcased inside have been created from our collector suggestions and design ideas and I must say the ideas this year have been fantastic!!

We started with a must have list of what we were being asked for ..

More colour (tick)

Fewer Designs (tick)

Lower limits (tick)

Other companions for the bears (tick, tick)

And then the collection began to evolve from the wonderful emails we started receiving through!! I know that some of these little ones will now be harder to find as again the collection is for all our stockists worldwide but I hope you agree that they will be well worth searching for.

The new minimo collection has 4 mini series within it, so again collectors can create very different looks for their own hugs.

And finally the new Charlie Bears mohair keyrings!!! Well can anyone ever have too many shoes? Not in our house that is for sure as William's collection would rival the best!!!

We cannot thank our collectors enough for the amazing ideas and I hope you all enjoy the collections as much as we have creating them.

With Love

Charlie
